

Around the Square

An irked Francis Eakman, ruefully eyeing the blisters on his hands, this week threatened to give up his favorite sport, fishing. His anger was expected to wear off in plenty of time for the next trip, though.

While wishing from a small boat in San Pedro Harbor Sunday, Mr. Eakman's outboard motor suddenly hesitated, coughed a few times, and quit. He estimates the distance he had to row to reach shore was "several hundred miles—at least."

If we didn't get anything correct this week, it was because we couldn't hear ourselves think (?). What with the regular noise of our machinery in the print shop and the roar of jack-hammers outside on the PE rails, it was like working in a boiler factory.

Now don't get the idea that we're griping, though. We are very pleased to see the street improvement work progressing during this generation.

This will come as a surprise to some but, oddly enough, we do not publish news for people's scrapbooks. In fact, nothing makes a newsman "see red" faster than to ask him this:

"Will you please print this item in your paper? We had a baby seven or eight weeks ago and we just remembered that we should have a news clipping about it to save and show our grandchildren someday."

A newspaper should concern itself only with news, when it happens or as near then as possible. The historical aspects of any paper are merely "by-products," and certainly not the reason for its existence.

Let's be good, cooperative citizens now and have our (pardon the expression) garbage out the night before collection days.

City Valuation Assessed at $6,717,130

A new assessed valuation for Sierra Madre of $6,717,130 was announced Monday by County Assessor John R. Quinn.

This figure is $432,280 more than the assessed valuation Sierra Madre had during the last fiscal year, 1950-51. The valuation then was $6,284,850.

In a report to the County Board of Supervisors, Mr. Quinn pointed out that all cities in the county except two—Signal Hill and Avalon—have undergone an assessed valuation increase of $388,121,920 for the fiscal year, 1951-52. The new county-wide total is $5,298,753,780.

Meanwhile, county officials were forecasting a tax rate slash of approximately 29½ cents per $100 assessed valuation. Last year's county tax rate was $1.9351.

Propose Forming Group:

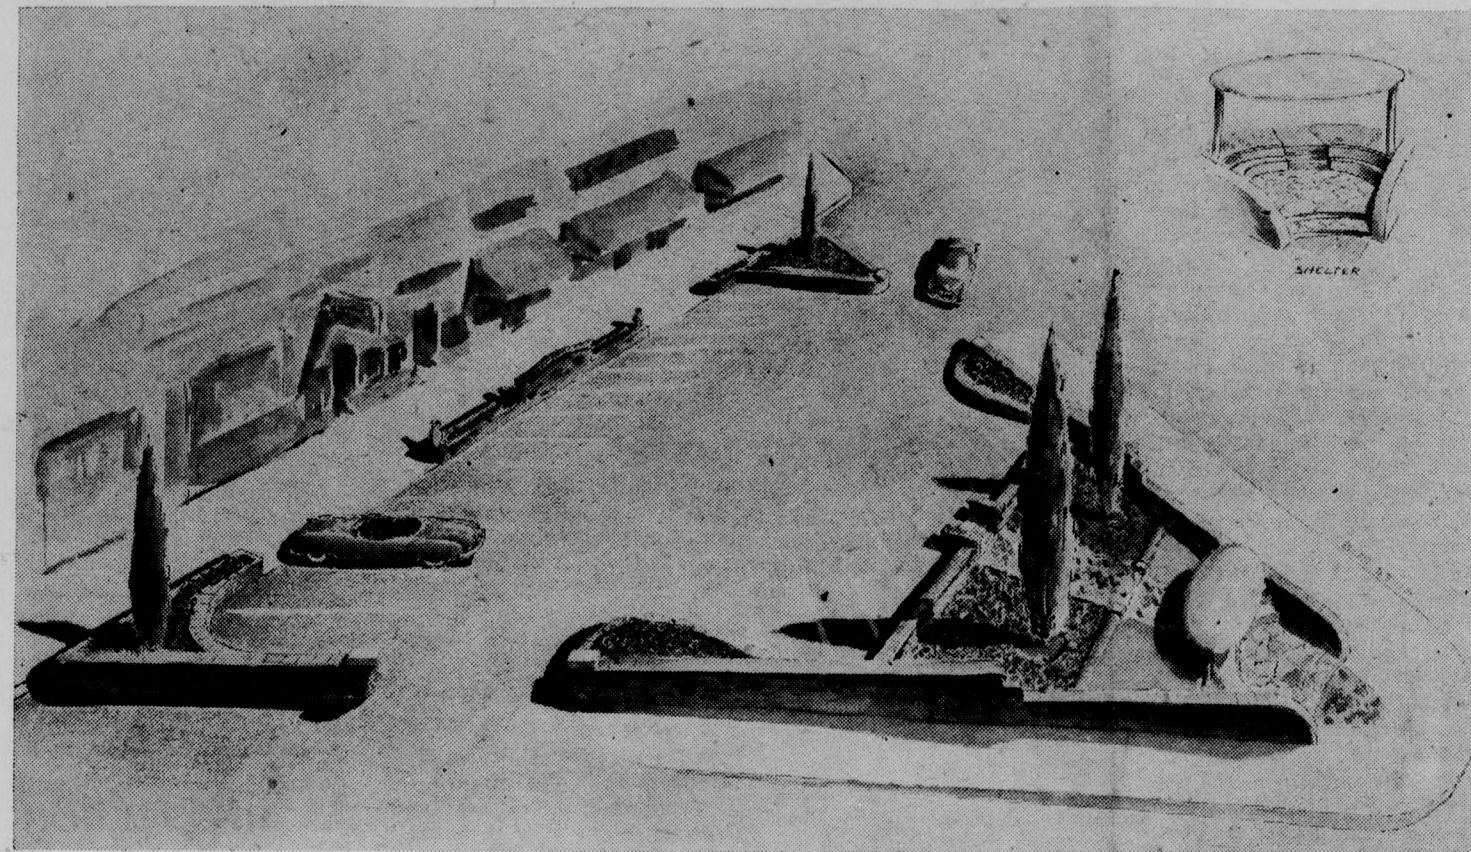

40 Merchants Attend Breakfast

Forty merchants attended yesterday's breakfast meeting called to discuss methods of improving business conditions in Sierra Madre.

All business people there said they favored organizing a permanent merchants group, with breakfasts planned for every other Wednesday. The next meeting will be July 25, 8 a. m. at Pal-Mur's Cafe.

Chairman Pro Tem Harold Stine hopes that officers may be elected and a more permanent organization formed at the July 25 breakfast.

Every person present offered his views on what they, as merchants, can do to promote HERE'S ARTIST'S drawing of the Kersting Court-Depot area as proposed this week by A. L. Suman. The sketch is by Artist Bernard Wynne and shows the alternate plan for the project Mr. Suman believes would help solve the downtown parking problem. The triangular area would have flower-encased walls at the northern tips, a wall and a larger garden for the southern part which would include a bus-waiting shelter. The NEWS invites comments from residents regarding the proposal and intends to publish a drawing of the original depot-conversion plan next week. At top of drawing, where car enters parking area, is the intersection of Baldwin and Kersting Court. The lower left wall is where the court now turns onto Sierra Madre boulevard at the bank, and the boulevard runs along the lower foreground. At top right is an enlargement of the bus-waiting shelter.

Utility Pole Puzzle Grows Complex

The City Council's "utility pole problem" became more complex this week as permission was asked to erect six new poles along Michillinda.

The request came from the Pasadena Light and Power Department whose spokesman, General Manager E. L. Bellanier, admitted that one pole 200 feet north of Sierra Madre boulevard was installed without the city's approval.

ARC Swimming Class Has 70 Enrolled

Sierra Madre Red Cross' summer swim class is completing its second week tomorrow, with an enrollment of 70 boys and girls.

Florence Peterson, executive secretary of the ARC Chapter, said approximately 40 of the 70 swimming students are beginners.

A second four-week class will begin Tuesday, Aug. 14.

KERSTING COURT TO BE 'ONE-WAY' FOR BUSES, TOO

Pacific Electric Railway Company has been advised that Kersting Court will be for one-way traffic only after the street work is completed, City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn announced Tuesday night.

The busses will be expected to comply with this ruling, Mr. Cornyn pointed out. At present, the court is restricted to one-way traffic for all vehicles except the busses.

Prints Taken Of CD Chiefs

Branch chiefs of Sierra Madre's Civil Defense Council were fingerprinted Thursday evening, July 5, at the Police Department.

Col. Charles E. Morrison, publicity director of the council, said it is the goal of Mayor William A. Kinney that all local civilian defense workers be fingerprinted.

The police can accommodate approximately 25 people at one time, Colonel Morrison pointed out.

STOP SIGNS ASKED AT INTERSECTION

Stop signs for the intersection of Auburn and Grandview were suggested this week by J. D. McAndrew, 311 N. Auburn.

In a letter to the City Council, Mr. McAndrew described the situation there as "dangerous," since it is almost a blind corner. "Besides motor vehicles," he stated, "there is the problem of many small children crossing this intersection."

On motion of Councilman Noren Eaton the request was referred to Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan for report and recommendation at the next meeting.

PAROLE, PROBATION CHIEF TO ADDRESS LIONS CLUB

C. H. Meador, chief of the United States Parole and Probation Office for Southern California, will address the Sierra Madre Lions Club this evening, July 12, 7:15 at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Mr. Meador's topic will be "Federal Offenders." He returned to the Southland recently after a visit to McNeil Island, which houses many federal prisoners.

The speaker brings current information on Selective Service violators (draft dodgers) and income tax evasion, of which notorious Mickey Cohen was the most colorful recent example.

Program Chairman for the evening will be Stan Kellogg, a local Lion and one of eight parole and probation officers working in Mr. Meador's Southern California office.

SKUTT REPORTS FULL ENROLLMENT IN SUMMER SCHOOL

Registrations have been closed for the summer session at City School, Superintendent Charles A. Skutt announced yesterday.

All classes are over the 35-pupil limit, he reported.

Mr. Skutt explained that individual attention is not possible if classes have enrollments of much more than 35.

Rails to Come Out Tomorrow

Sierra Madre's old Pacific Electric Railway tracks will be ripped up tomorrow, Vernon Udell, acting street superintendent, announced yesterday.

Workmen have been cutting holes at 10 foot intervals along the rails all week. Actual removal of the loosened rails is scheduled to begin Friday, Mr. Udell said.

Dolls, 'Doll Mothers' to Vie Tomorrow

Dolls—of all sizes and types—will be exhibited tomorrow, July 13, 1:30 p. m. at the City School playgrounds.

The doll show is planned as one of the special Friday afternoon features of the city-sponsored playground program.

Recreation Director John E. Oden said children are encouraged to dress up as "doll mothers," complete with high heels and dresses, for displaying their dolls.

Ribbons and prizes will be awarded winners in the following categories of dolls: story book, rag, unusual, foreign, prettiest, funniest, smallest, largest, and animal.

Planners Set Hearings on Two Requests

Two public hearings were set for Thursday, July 26, 8 p. m. by the Planning Commission at its last meeting.

One hearing concerns the variance request of Mrs. Alicia Parker, 667 W. Grandview, who hopes to operate a nursery school at her home, located in a residential zone.

Mrs. Parker told the Planners she intends to enroll 28 children, ages 2 to 6, from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The second hearing will be on the request of J. C. Sengers of Sycamore Place for a zoning variance so he can build a house on the front part of his lot. A "garage-house" is now located on the rear of the lot, zoned R-1.

A.L. Suman Proposes Alternate Depot Plan

MANUFACTURER SAYS IDEA WOULD AID PARKING HERE

An alternate plan for the conversion of Sierra Madre's depot into a civic center was proposed this week by A. L. Suman, local manufacturer and an exhibiting artist.

The plan, Mr. Suman believes, should be substituted for the one which has been under consideration by the Chamber of Commerce, the city, the Lions Club, and the Garden Club.

Helping solve the downtown parking problem is one of the main talking points for Mr. Suman's proposed civic center, which would eliminate the PE Station and put in its place a smaller bus-waiting shelter at the lower tip of the island.

Major part of the Kersting Court area would be used for parking, and Mr. Suman said there should be additional room for "12, maybe more parking spaces."

Laid out as a huge triangle, the court area would have the bus shelter, a walkway, and garden plots leading up to the parking area. Additional, smaller flower beds would be planted at the other tips of the triangle and along the northern or sidewalk side.

Partial walls would extend into Kersting Court, leaving entrances for cars at both ends. Obviously, a part of the depot island would have to be trimmed to allow parking on both sides of the court.

This layout would require less expense now and less maintenance later than the original plan for converting the present depot structure into a civic art gallery, Mr. Suman says.

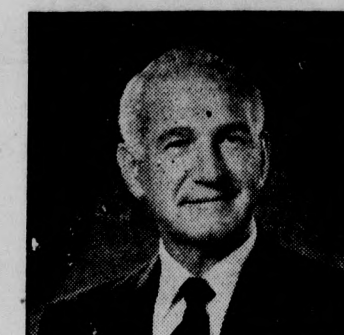

Concerning the depot, long a local landmark and almost sacred to many Sierra Madreans, Mr. Suman said, "Some

Swim Carnival Planned for Friday at Pool

A "Swim Carnival," the first of the summer, will be held at the Canyon Pool tomorrow, July 13, beginning at 2 p. m.

Participants will be classified according to age. It was announced by Recreation Director John E. Oden.

He said events will include free style, back stroke, breast stroke, underwater swim, flutter board, "fins only," and diving from the low board.

The Recreation Commission invites all Sierra Madreans to witness the events, although facilities for spectators is limited.

Chamber Will Elect Directors

Ballots are going out by mail this week to elect four new directors of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce.

Secretary Edna Hewitt said the new directors will replace men who resigned recently because of heavy business schedules.

After the new board members are seated, Mrs. Hewitt said the meeting night of the Chamber probably will be changed. Last week's scheduled meeting was adjourned for lack of a quorum—just as the meeting called for last month was.

Citizens to Honor Firemen Tuesday

A good turkey dinner and a chance to honor men of the local Fire Department is promised Sierra Madreans who attend the "testimonial dinner" next Tuesday, July 17, at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Chairman Francis Eakman said the dinner will start at 7 p. m. He said a "good crowd" is expected.

Feature of the evening will be the presentation, by Emcee Mayor William A. Kinney, of 20-year service badges to two firemen, Robert Newbery and Andrew Liscombe.

Guests of honor also will include other firemen who already have reached the 20-year mark, plus all members of the local department.

Mr. Eakman said several selections will be offered by Gus Rihder, popular pianist, music teacher, and Sierra Madre Kiwanian.

"This is an excellent chance for residents and business people to show their appreciation of the men who are on duty virtually all the time guarding our lives and property," he pointed out.

Souvenir menu programs, highlighted by "testimonials" from grateful Sierra Madreans, will be given those attending the dinner, it was announced.

Members of the Woman's Club are preparing and serving the dinner under the leadership of Mrs. H. Owen and Mrs. R. Tyree.

Tickets are on sale at Arnold's Hardware, Rusty and Anne's Malt Shop, Harry A. Lange, real estate and insurance, and the Bank of Sierra Madre.

ARTICLE DESCRIBES SUICIDE PLANE HIT ON CARRIER

BY STAN CANN

It had been a leisurely sort of morning. The weather was warm and sunny. It was a perfect day for a baseball game or a trip to the seashore. The only difficulty with the latter suggestion was that the officers and men of the aircraft carrier USS Belleau Wood (CVL 24) already were far out at sea—and there certainly was no shore in sight.

Several routine air patrols had been launched in the morning and, by noon, they had all returned from their job of scouting ahead of the task group in time to permit the air crews the relaxation of a serenely-eaten meal.

Only four days before (Oct. 26, 1944), as a part of Adm. William F. Halsey's famed Third Fleet, the ship and its planes had successfully completed the work of "covering" the invasion of Leyte, Philippine Islands. It was only natural for the discipline of the ship to be eased for a day or so.

After lunch, many of the men who were off duty either retired to their bunks for a snooze or put in some time sunbathing on the flight deck. When, at 2 p. m., the PA system announced that there were several "bogies" (unidentified planes, presumably enemy) approaching from 60 miles away, there was not much change in the relaxed composure and attitude of the men. "After all, hadn't they been attacked many times before? Might as well relax until they ring the alarm."

At 1411 (2:11 p.m.), the boat-swain's mate bellowed over the PA system:

"All hands to general quarters! All hands to general quarters!"

This proclamation was followed by the usual clang of the general alarm bell and the stirring notes of "To Arms" played on the bugle.

Instantaneously, the ship came to life. Flash-proof hoods and gloves were hastily grabbed; steel helmets were scooped-up on the run. The decks and companionways seemed to rumble as men raced to their battle stations. Ladders clanked under running feet, and water-tight doors swung shut. Throughout it all, however, there was the efficient appearance of a well-trained team.

Speed of the ship had been increased to 27 knots, and crews were toiling to get eight fighter planes into the air, in compliance with orders from the group commander. As the sixth of these planes left the flight deck, lookouts noticed an enemy plane was hurtling down on the USS Franklin, another carrier astern of the BW.

As it hit, there was a tremendous flash of flame near the island structure, and, at once, the ship's flight deck was ablaze and smoking.

A second enemy plane followed the first down in what appeared to be another suicide dive on the Franklin. Instead the "Zeke" suddenly swept up, executed a wing-over, and headed for the Belleau Wood.

By this time, every anti-aircraft gun on the ship was trained on the Japanese Kamikaze plane. Even batteries on the starboard side were turned around completely to fire over the flight deck at the approaching enemy. Tracers streaked into the plane—but it never wavered from its course.

Finally, the "Zeke" dipped its nose out of the shallow glide and crashed onto the flight deck, just astern of the after elevator.

Flames, wreckage, and chunks of metal shot into the air with a deafening roar. Burning gasoline immediately engulfed the stern section of the ship and sloshed over the side. A column of black smoke soared hundreds of feet into the sky. The ship seemed to stagger like an injured boxer for an instant—then, as if shrugging its shoulders at destiny, continued on its course.

Woman Couldn't Tell Dirty Curb Was Loading Zone

"The curb was so dirty I couldn't tell it was a loading zone," complained Mrs. Nora H. Flynn, 102 N. Mountain Trail, in court Saturday morning.

Mrs. Flynn was issued a traffic citation for parking in front of the Sierra Madre Theater. "I've parked there several times before," she told Judge John C. Mead.

The local woman was fined $5 for the illegal parking.

All Was Quiet On July 4th Front

A "very quiet" July Fourth was reported by Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan.

"There were a few scattered firecrackers in the evening," said Mr. McMillan, "but most people stayed within the law as regards fireworks."

No holiday casualties were reported at the Police Department, except for the San Gabriel minister who died while hiking on Mount Wilson Trail.

Petition Asks 'Caution Signs' At Intersection

No action was taken Tuesday on the petition, signed by 13 property owners, to place "caution signs" at Rancho Road and San Gabriel avenue.

Councilman Noren Eaton moved that the matter be continued on the agenda until Chief Gordon G. McMillan makes his recommendation.

Cars going down Rancho Road from Sierra Madre boulevard frequently are too fast to see the opening of San Gabriel avenue, the petition stated in effect. Signers suggested the erection of a "caution sign" at the northwest corner of the intersection "for the protection of children."

Marvin Weese' Exhibit at Santa Ana Gallery

The Scandinavian-American Art Society opened a showing at the Santa Ana Art Gallery last Saturday with a reception for the artists participating.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Weese of this city attended the reception; Mr. Weese is president of the society and both he and Mrs. Weese are exhibiting. The exhibition was opened to the public Sunday.

SM Postal Receipts In 'Moderate Gain'

Postmaster Eddie D. Robertson reported a "moderate gain" in the postal receipts figures for Sierra Madre last month.

Receipts during June amounted to $7,708.88. In June of 1951, PO receipts totalled $7,120.73—$588.15 less than the 1951 figure.

with 92 shipmates dead or missing.

Shortly before sunset (Oct. 31, 1944), the two crippled carriers, the Franklin and the Belleau Wood, parted company with Task Group 38.4 and headed back to the United States for repairs.

As the ships were drawing apart, Captain John A. Perry, commanding officer of the Belleau Wood, sent this coded message to the flagship: "Badger, this is Fagan. Good-bye. We'll be back."

True to its promise, the indomitable ship did come back to engage in four major battles and receive a Presidential Unit Citation for meritorious service.

Pastor Dies While Hiking

Services were held Saturday for the Rev. Edwin W. David, 38-year-old pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Temple City, who was stricken and died while hiking above Sierra Madre Wednesday, July 4.

Resuscitation efforts by Dr. Nathan Jacobs were in vain as the clergyman was reported dead shortly after 8:30 a. m. The Rev. Mr. David suffered the attack approximately two miles up the Mount Wilson Trail.

The minister was leading a group of 12 boys and girls, members of a hiking club. One of the boys of the group notified forest rangers who brought the body down the trail.

The Rev. Mr. David is survived by his wife, Mildred, and two daughters, Carolyn Ann and Elizabeth Jane. He resided at 1023 N. Muscatel.

"GOODS OF THE WOODS"

MRS. LEONARD'S RETIREMENT ENDS 41 YEARS OF TEACHING

After a fabulous record of 41 years of teaching, Mrs. Zayda Leonard, 17 N. Mountain Trail, just wants to "relax and enjoy my grandchildren."

Mrs. Leonard, who retired last month after 32 years as a faculty member at Sierra Madre City School, has had a significant role in the training of hundreds of local residents. Superintendent Charles A. Skutt sums it up this way:

"Practically everyone who ever attended City School went through Mrs. Leonard's second grade or home economics classes."

Mrs. Leonard, a graduate of the first home economics class at Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, introduced home-making instruction during her five years of teaching at Colton Junior High School and re-introduced it at City School when she joined this district. She taught the subject locally for a total of 14 years.

The local educator also has written extensively on the subject and did work in preparing the county's course of study. She is the author of a teacher-training unit on dairies now used by the county, and educational observers from UCLA came to Sierra Madre to see her study-unit on wholesale marketing.

Regarding her many students who now are adults, Mrs. Leonard remarked that she frequently is stopped on the street by housewives who tell her they still are using the recipes she taught them and still are following her methods of sewing.

Mrs. Leonard came to Colton to teach in 1913, after five years' experience in Michigan. Her husband was principal of the Colton High School until he died in 1918 during the flu epidemic.

Her son, Bob Leonard, has lived in Sierra Madre all but one year of his life and also has followed the teaching profession. For seven years, he has been an instructor in machine shop and architectural drawing at El Monte Junior High School.

The grandchildren Mrs. Leonard wants to enjoy now that she has retired are Dixie, 3½, Jack, 3, and Sharon, 10 months.

PAY BOOST—Fourth Grade Teacher, Patricia M. Lehman, of Sacramento, Miss California of 1951, smiles approval as Governor Earl Warren signs bill boosting minimum salary for teachers from $2,400 to $3,000 a year. The bill, sponsored by California Teachers Association, of which Miss Lehman is member, makes California the first state to set a $3,000 minimum. "Teaching," says Miss Lehman, "is the greatest profession in the world."

Film of Grid Game for Masonic Event

Movies of the Shriners East-West Football Game of 1948 will feature the Masonic Deacons' Dinner tomorrow evening, July 13, 7 o'clock at the Masonic Temple.

John C. Mead, master of Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, F. and A. M., and local representative of the Al Malaikah Shrine Potentate, said the film, "Little Joe," also will be shown. This movie tells the story of a little crippled boy being admitted into one of the Shriners' hospitals.

The dinner is being sponsored by Jim Moore, senior deacon of the local lodge, and Henry Vis, junior deacon.

Judge John Mead Presides Over Pasadena Court

During the month of July, Judge Mead will be the vacation substitute for Judge William E. Fox.

Brother Pat, CP, Undergoes Surgery, To Convalesce Here

Brother Pat, C. P., who left Sierra Madre in April after nine years' service at the Mater Dolorosa Retreat House and St. Rita's Church, is a surgical patient at Alta Vista Hospital in Pasadena.

Brother Pat was brought to Pasadena last week from his new assignment at the Retreat House in Sacramento. As soon as he is able to be moved the priest will return to the Sierra Madre Retreat House for convalescing.

ALA Unit to Elect Officers

Officers for the year 1951-52 will be elected this evening, July 12, when the American Legion Auxiliary meets at the home of Mrs. Henry Horner, 196 E. Sierra Madre boulevard. Second anniversary of the founding of the Sierra Madre Lady Lions Club was observed Tuesday evening, July 3.

SCOUT DISTRICT MEETING SET

Next meeting of the Sierra Madre Boy Scout District Committee is scheduled for Monday, July 16.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m. at the parkhouse, said Ralph Hurwit, committee publicity chairman.

LOCAL GIRL SCOUTS READY FOR INTERNATIONAL CAMPS

Three Sierra Madre girls have been selected to attend Girl Scout camps this summer. Bette Cook is going to the regional camp at Huckleberry Woods in Big Basin State Park. Joycene Thompson will attend the international camp at Wind Mountain, Washington, and Margot Woodworth already is in Europe en route to "The Chalet" in Switzerland.

The camp at Huckleberry Woods, for which Mariner Bette Cook left yesterday, is for senior Scouts from all the Western states. Owned by the Girl Scouts of Marin County, the camp is loaned to the region for this session. An advanced camping program is planned for these older Scouts.

"One World—Through Friendship" is the theme for the camp in the Cascade Mountains that Joycene Thompson will attend from July 17 to Aug. 6. Eleven countries, including Australia, the Netherlands, Brazil, and Columbia, are sending delegates. The camp program will include discussions of the economic and social problems underlying conflict among peoples.

On Tuesday, when the SS America docked at Southampton, Margot Woodworth completed the first leg of her journey to the international encampment in Switzerland. Twenty-six girls from almost as many countries will tour together, spending four days in London, seeing Oxford and Stratford-on-Avon, three days in Paris, and stopping at Geneva before arriving at the Chalet where the camp will be held.

Sierra Madre Girl Scout officials point out that the opportunities these girls are having to meet with peoples from other backgrounds and customs constitute a vital step in furthering the friendship between nations.

FIRE FLAMES

One of the local clergymen driving west on Sierra Madre boulevard stopped so suddenly after crossing the crosswalk lines that his passenger fell forward and bumped her head on the windshield. The cop at the corner suspecting injury, rushed to the scene.

"What happened, did you not see the stop sign?" inquired the "nosy" policeman.

"Oh, yes, I saw the sign. But I didn't see you," was the astonished reply.

Returning to the thought of fire, we are lucky aren't we? Right here in the midst of dry brush and a few lots that have not been cleared of inflammables, we can feel very lucky.

We are fortunate to have within our limits the most careful people of the land. They must be so, or why do we have such an exceptional record of low fire loss.

This is due to the constant alertness of the fire department and of fire prevention activities.

It would be foolish for a city or nation to become apathetic about their fire protection when fires become rare. Such an attitude would be the first form of the return to heavy losses by fire.

There is much carelessness and indifference in other sections of the United States that is causing a ridiculous amount of loss of life and property that we in Sierra Madre do not realize, unless we pay attention to the reports of fires recorded.

Unless we are acquainted with this loss—we do not feel the need for more fire prevention is necessary. The fire chiefs who meet and discuss such matters are well aware of the need for more and more fire prevention.

Fire prevention value is so well recognized that in large cities, trucks equipped with radios are sent out daily with the crew of men to investigate dangerous conditions and inspect homes and yards. In this manner, much fire is prevented and within the next year, it is hoped that such tactics will save the lives of 4000 children in the United States alone.

Such an accomplishment will be a beautiful feather in the hats of fire departments. We must learn that "the best to prevent is money well spent."

We must keep our equipment in the best order possible and new ideas in fire fighting should be followed.

Just because we are fortunate enough to go a long time without a serious fire, does not spell security. We must KEEP the FIRES OUT.

HALF YEAR'S BUILD PERMITS City Allocated PASS MILLION DOLLAR MARK $18,968.44 as 'In Lieu Tax'

More than a million dollars in building permits were issued in Sierra Madre during the first six months of 1951 ending June 30. This represents an increase of approximately one-third over the same period of 1950.

City Building Inspector William Lees announced the total for this six-month period as $1,000,873.50. The comparable figure for last year was $676,752.00, he reported. The total for the first six months of 1949 was down another third—$300,885.00.

"This is just the building permits," explained Mr. Lees, "and does not include permits issued for plumbing, electrical, and street work."

Last month's building activity fell way off from June of 1950, however, and the building inspector recorded only $30,200 in permits issued. This compares with $110,408 for June of last year—a reduction of more than two thirds.

Mr. Lees said permits of more than $500 were issued to the following persons last month.

Charles W. Walker, to construct a swimming pool at 295 W. Orange Grove, a permit for $2000; D. L. D'Arcy, to alter a store building at 62 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, permit issued for $1000; Anne Lewis, to erect a garage dwelling at 600 W. Highland, permit for $8000; Inez Tunison, to alter a garage dwelling at 167 E. Highland, $700; L. B. Joyner, to add a bedroom at 642 Skyland Drive, $1500; Maude MacJohnston, to construct a residence at 446 Grove, $6900; and William P. Cook, to move a house seven feet at 198 E. Laurel, $800.

Minor Jailed For Drinking

A 19-year-old youth was in city jail yesterday after State Board of Equalization officers caught him drinking at the Club Sixty, 60 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

Bail was set at $150 for the minor charged with illegally drinking in an on-sale liquor store. He will be arraigned Saturday, July 14, 9:30 a. m.

Equalization Board Officers David G. Shrader and John N. Churchill said the youth first showed them someone else's driver's license with the age of 21 listed. When they challenged this document, he then produced his draft card showing that his age was 19.

people think that's a ticklish point. I don't."

"Get rid of it," he stated. "After all, the train's done gone." It will be nothing but a source of constant trouble and expense. But don't get me wrong, the original idea was good; I only think this one is better."

Mr. Suman pointed out that the artists for whom the depot was going to be a gallery "would be the first to agree."

"You can't show pictures to advantage on small walls; you have to have tall ceilings. Paintings should be shown well or not at all. The present gallery in the City Hall is much better," he added.

"And who's going to watch over them, and keep youngsters from putting mustaches on all the portraits," asked Mr. Suman. "We would have to hire a full-time watchman."

Commenting on the Kersting Court pepper trees, another delicate subject locally, the manufacturer stated:

"Well, there are only three left now, and two probably must go because of highway regulations. That leaves one, and it's out of hand."

He suggested that the wall-contained flower beds offer the greatest opportunity for easy planting and for change.

Summing up, Mr. Suman emphasized that he is not going to "front" for this project. "I'm just throwing the idea in the door and jumping back."

Colligan-Gallagher Rites At Las Cruces, New Mexico

Mrs. Rebecca B. Colligan was in Las Cruces, New Mexico, last week to attend the wedding of her son, John Borradaile Colligan and Miss Dolores Gertrude Gallagher.

The wedding at St. Genevieve church united two of the oldest families of the Southwest. The bride wore the wedding gown of her mother, Aleon lace brought from Germany eighty years ago. Her lucky piece was a gold coin in her slipper dated 1829 belonging to her great-grandmother.

The wedding guests assembled in the old Armijo mansion where the family has lived for over a hundred years, for the reception.

Mrs. Colligan the bridegroom's mother, wore a lavender chiffon with matching hat trimmed in cerise and violets.

Mr. and Mrs. Colligan, following an undisclosed honeymoon will be at home in Pasadena.

John Colligan is the great-grandson of the late Don Ambrosio Ormijo of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

FORMER RESIDENTS OF PANAMA MEET AT LUPFER HOME

The former Panamanians, most of whom now reside in Monrovia, get together for an Independence Day outing every year.

In the evening H. Lockwood, one of the members of the group, showed his colored motion pictures of Panama and Haiti.

UTILITY POLES

"hanging fire" on the telephone pole at the southeast corner of Alegria which Miss Mae Heston has been protesting for several weeks.

Knox Hagar, assistant manager, Telephone Division, of the California Water and Telephone Company, indicated that his firm is willing to consider changing location of the pole and guy wire, which Miss Heston contends cuts across the entrance to her property.

"Miss Heston seems reluctant to make a decision until Director of Public Works Glen Watson sees it," he told the council.

Action on the telephone pole and the six new proposed power poles was deferred until Mr. Watson returns to the city, probably by Aug. 1.

Riot Charge Folds, Police Release Youth

Ralph J. Leffler, 20, 292 W. Carter, was released from Pasadena City Jail Tuesday after being held in connection with what police called an "incipient riot" last week at a Colorado street drive-in restaurant.

Leffler had been arrested along with 12 teenagers after police were tipped off that a brawl between Pasadena and Eagle Rock youths had been scheduled. An isolated part of the Hastings Ranch allegedly had been chosen as the "battleground."

Pasadena's city prosecutor, Byron Gentry, ordered the release of Leffler after it was learned that the charge of inciting a riot would not stand up in court unless officers first moved along the crowd ordering participants to disperse. This was not done Friday night, he said.

GOOD HEALTH

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. A baby should be inoculated against diphtheria between the ages of three months and nine months. It is dangerous to wait any longer because the disease is particularly serious in very young children. There were 15,336 cases of diphtheria in 1940. Early figures for 1950 indicate the number of cases has been halved during the ten-year period.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. Doctors in Hillsdale, Michigan, conduct each physical examination of a patient with the possibility of cancer in mind, since early detection is the primary factor in curing cancer. Thereby every doctor's office becomes a small cancer clinic. This has been accomplished by complete cooperation between citizens and doctors in a joint effort to detect cancer early.

Answer to Question No. 3:

3. An otoscope is an instrument which directs a ray of light into the ears, making it possible to detect abscesses and other disorders.

The schedule:

Picnic for Sunday

Some 400 of the happiest children in Southern California will frolic at the third annual picnic of the Adopted Children's Association, to be held Sunday afternoon, July 15, from 1 to 5 p. m. at Garfield Park, South Pasadena.

Chairmen of the event promise "something unique and different" in the way of entertainment, and free ice cream, milk and coffee will be on hand. New officers of the association will be installed.

The Adopted Children's Association was organized three years ago by a group of 13 Southlanders interested in adopted children or children who might be adopted, and in laws pertaining to adoptions.

In making the announcement locally, it was pointed out that the picnic will be of special interest here since there are reported to be so many adopted children living in Sierra Madre.

'Youngsters' Blast
Old Timers, 12-5

Age gave way for youth last Wednesday as the "youngsters" team belted the "Old Timers," 12 to 5 in a July 4 baseball game played at the city ball park.

It was a case of creaking joints and poor coordination for the "Old Timers" whose four-man battery struck out 14 "Youngsters" but also issued 13 bases on balls. Elder pitchers were Sam Davis, Ed Wodrich, Ralph Hurwit, and Jim Heasley Sr.

For the "Youngsters," Pitcher Dick Citron retired nine of the batters he faced. Citron also was one of the batting stars of the day, blasting two doubles for the small fry. Mahlon Kinney was another "big stick" for the boys, driving in five runs. Shortstop Larry Cavalier was a defensive standout.

Heasley and City Recreation Director John E. Oden each collected two-base hits to aid the Old Timers' cause. The youngsters out-hit the oldsters 6 to 5, and recorded only one error. The "Old Timers" were charged with four miscues.

Mayor William A. Kinney played several innings at second base, and City Clerk Lawrence "Buzz" Brain, capably handled first base chores. Brain, a former professional baseball player, batted in one of his team's runs.
The "Old Timers" were coached by Larry Shepherd, and the "Youngsters" by John Oden.

At 12 noon, a brief Independence Day ceremony was conducted with Bugler Richard Davey playing "Call to the Colors."

The Sierra Madre Veterans of Foreign Wars Post supplied soft drinks for players and spectators.

Mayor Kinney had proposed the game at the last Council meeting as a special July 4 feature.

Today is Civil Defense house cleaning day. In an atomic attack, your home can be the best protection. Make it ready. Rubbish, old newspapers, rags, discarded furniture, dust-covered odds and ends. These are fuel for fire if the enemy strikes.

ON THE DIAMOND

Looking at the Arcadia Class "A" softball league, we find the Aerojet team has clinched first place for the first-round title. By defeating Bunny's Playhouse to the tune of 5-4 with only one more game to go in the first round, they are a cinch.

This league is played in two rounds. The winner of the first round and the winner of the second round will play it off for the league championship, unless, of course, the same team wins both rounds. Current league standings show:

	W.	L.
Aerojet	4	2
Bunny's Playhouse	2	2
Dillman Plasters	2	2
American Legion	2	2
Miller Jewelers	2	2
Lucky Lager	0	4

Speaking of softball leagues, I see that play in the Azusa Industrial League was inaugurated Monday night, July 2nd. This league appears also to be a toughie. So if any of you happen to be taking a drive on some hot Monday evening and want to see a good game, drive out to Azusa as all games are played at the Azusa Memorial Park on Third Street.

TENNIS RACQUETS

Bob Holzl recently teamed up with Geo. McCall to win the doubles Championship at Arcadia County Park in the Los Angeles District Qualifying Tournament for the National Park Championship. The Holzl-McCall team defeated Rogers and Buford for the doubles title.

FORTY YEARS AGO

July 14, 1911—Permission was granted by the trustees (city councilmen) to A. N. Carter for the maintenance of a target range on his property beyond Carter's Camp and near the outskirts of the city. It will be under Mr. Carter's supervision and the permit will be revocable at any time the range becomes a nuisance—or interferes with the enforcement of the ordinance against shooting in parts of the city where shooting would be more dangerous.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

July 10, 1931—Important decisions affecting the future of Sierra Madre were arrived at during an informal meeting of the City Councils of Sierra Madre and Arcadia last night... The Arcadians pledged themselves to circulate petitions for the extension of Central avenue (Sierra Madre boulevard) through their municipality and to lend every possible assistance in the carrying through of the project so vital to the welfare of Sierra Madre. Also a pledge was given that the Arcadia administration would cooperate in any way and every way to secure the widening and improvement of Baldwin avenue in Sierra Madre to Foothill boulevard and later its extension through the Baldwin ranch and the south of Arcadia.

VETERAN AUTOMOBILE racer Ralph De Palma shown during the height of his career with his famed Miller Special. He is now on a traffic safety speaking tour for General Petroleum Corporation and will address the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club luncheon next Tuesday, July 17, at the Woman's Clubhouse. See story on page 1.

ARCADIAN LEARNS IN NEWS THAT 'LINEN' IS COTTON

From Arcadia comes the latest report of a woman being victimized by the old "Irish linen" racket.

The victim, Mrs. Henrietta Price, said in a letter to Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan, "I didn't realize until I read the article in the Sierra Madre newspaper that my cloth was cotton instead of linen."

Mrs. Price stated that she paid the "sweet little old lady" who came to her door $35 for the "Irish linen set." "This (letter) is to put myself on notice as desiring to meet her again," the Arcadian wrote.

KIWANIS CLUB From page one

pettively for 27 consecutive years. Of the 2889 races in which he competed during his career, he holds victories in 2557.

In conjunction with his talk next Tuesday, scheduled for the 12:10 luncheon meeting at the Woman's Clubhouse, Mr. De Palma will present a color motion picture of the 1949 Indianapolis Race, "Behind the Checkerboard Flag."

Recently the Helms Athletic Association honored the veteran driver by presenting him its Award of Highest Merit for "his contribution to automotive racing and his performance as one of the greatest drivers of all time."

Mr. De Palma, who captured the 500-mile Indianapolis Race in 1915, is now associated with the public relations department of General Petroleum Corporation.

Mickey the Monkey Still 'At Large'

An all-city alert may result from the monkey business going on this week in the northern sections of town.

By yesterday noon, Mickey the monkey still was roaming at large, swinging from tree to tree, and terrorizing local cats and many housewives.

Heading in a generally westward direction, Mickey last was reported in the vicinity of 186 Grove. That makes nearly two thirds of town that the pint-sized rhesus has traversed in her flight for freedom.

The monkey, owned by Bud Johnson, 360, Acacia, first escaped from her home last Friday. Monday she was reported hiding under a house at 666 Canyon Crest. When Officer Buchanan arrived on the scene he was able to get within 10 feet of the pet but, as he puts it, "I guess I didn't speak the same language." Mickey fled in a direction toward Briar Hill Lodge on Churchill Road.

Police report "many bulletins" came in from residents who had seen the monkey, and officers or Mr. Johnson always arrived just a little too late. Marjorie Barter, 675 Orange Drive, testified that her cats were in a state of virtual "paralysis" from seeing the awesome form swoop through the trees.

Mr. Johnson said Mickey was given his wife two years ago by Screen Star Jeannie Crain. He opined that the chances of recapturing the monkey might be better if Sierra Madreans did not feed it.

"If she gets hungry enough, she may come home," he said. The Johnsons are offering a $5 reward to anyone capturing Mickey, alive and safe, of course. The monkey never has been known to bite anyone, they said.

Kiwanis Club Will Sponsor Tennis Tourney

The Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the first annual City Tennis Tournament, scheduled for July 23 to 28.

John E. Oden, city recreation director, said the Kiwanians have voted to furnish awards for the tournament winners and will pay the entrance fees of Sierra Madre players competing in the National Public Parks and Playgrounds Tennis Championships to be held at Arcadia County Park Aug. 8 to 12.

Deadline for entering the Sierra Madre tourney has been set for Monday, July 16.

Youths Plan 'Burger-Swim' At City Pool

Plans were underway this week for a "hamburger-swimming party" next Friday evening, July 20, at the Canyon Pool.

Miss Elsa Seifert, chairman of the city-sponsored event, said a supper of hamburgers, hot dogs, and soft drinks is scheduled from 6 to 7 p. m., followed by swimming.

Couples and "stags" of high school and junior college ages are invited to attend the party, Miss Seifert stated. Proceeds will go into the swimming pool fund.

Ice Cream Vendor Again In Dog House

The ice cream saleswoman was in the dog house again last week as police received two new complaints.

Mrs. Thomas George, 159 Wilson, reported that chimes from the ice cream truck awakened her children at approximately 9:45 p. m. Thursday.

"I asked her to tone down her loud speaker early in the evening, and she did—for a while, that is," Mrs. George said. "The woman later turned it up again and woke my children."

The other complaint came from an unidentified woman who declared the "continuous noise of the loud speaker" was "driving me nuts."

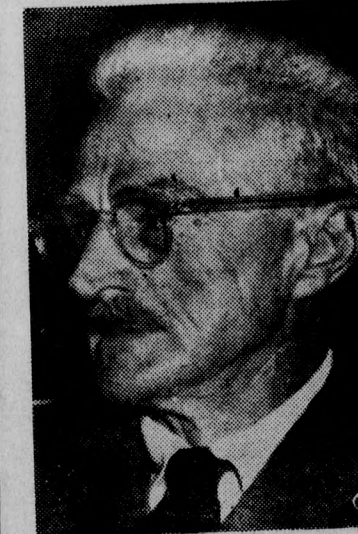

Six Checker Champs Win At Playground

Six checker champions were crowned Friday following a tournament conducted at the City School Playground.

Winners, as announced by Recreation Director John E. Oden, included:

Julie Ann Alison, Carol Blanke, Philip Jenkins, Linda Skutt, Richardson Sandomowicz, and Robert Woodward. Prizes were ribbons, passes to the Swimming Pool, or craft materials.

NO ROSY FUTURE...

Currently the American public is nervously contemplating the color future of their TV set. Having been advised that the adaptation from black-and-white to color will cost anywhere from $200 up, they're worried.

Will color telecasts still come in on a black-and-white set, they are asking. Will all future programs be only in color? Is it possible that color telecasting will make all present sets obsolete?

Buyers are hesitant to purchase new sets until color's future presents a more rosy hue. Name manufacturers' sets gather dust in the showrooms while the jittery public clutches their purses in a miserly grasp.

While such colorful questions harass the buying public, two youngsters equipped with American ingenuity in the best tradition, went about the business of quietly adapting their sets to color.

16-year-old Carl Weiner of New Jersey said the first scheduled CBS color telecast came in "perfectly" and found the color fidelity "excellent." The cost of adaptation, including two resistors and a couple of controls, amounted to $1. While friend Bobby Peters' Crosley set, a more "complicated job" was adapted for color for the amazing sum of $15.

Jittery set owners, please take heart.

TALK ABOUT TV...

"The Joe Adams Show" on KTTV, ad men are saying, is one of the best produced local shows on the air, but they are doubtful if it will do a good job for a sponsor. Claim is that emcee Adams has too haughty an attitude to sell the public. . . . Loraine Cugat on KECA-TV has the boys in the bald-headed row temporarily, at least, forgetting Ina Rae Hutton. The fem bandleader set some sort of eye-popping record with her first show, despite camera work that left her without a single closeup. . . . Tom Harmon is working on a new TV show and has approached several people on the idea—which reportedly is NOT a sports program. . . . KTTV has been taking quite a financial licking on its "Ginny Simms Show" and may drop it soon if a sponsor doesn't come along fast-like.

A TV audience of between 5,000,000 and 8,000,000 is estimated and anticipated in California and the Salt Lake City, Utah, area if the World Series is telecast "live" to the West Coast this fall.

TELE-TYPES...

Vacationing Perry Como Show has been taken over by thrush Peggy Lee and Mel Torme in "TV's Top Tunes." Three weekly tune time is 7:45 PM on Channel 2. . . . Another thrice weekly, Betty Brewer, small and dark-haired miss, co-stars with Don Ameche in the new "Don Ameche Musical Playhouse" which debuts Thursday, July 19, 9:00 PM on KECA-TV. . . . "Fireside Theatre" has closed its doors for the summer season, having aired for 39 weeks on KTLA. Popular series, equally popular in hard-to-please East, returns in the fall. . . . New dance team of Jack Boyle and Joyce Horne has been signed by "Tiny Stowe's All-Star Minstrels" as replacement for the Alyssons, who are currently on a Texas tour. . . . Victor Borge, star of his own show on KNBH, says that no woman will ever become President because no woman ever reached age of 35. . . . Skee Goodheart, featured performer on KTLA's "Frosty Frolics" began skating as a child in Minnesota. He has since appeared with both "Ice Capades" and "Hollywood on Ice."

FOLK STORIES...

Cecil's voice (Stan Freeberg of "Time for Beany") has been signed for a role in new movie, "Callaway Went Thataway." . . . Billie Burke has been so nervous in her role on KTTV afternoon television that the station has barred all audiences both for rehearsal and the actual show. Not even TV columnists are allowed on the set. . . . Worst sufferer of "mike fright" in radio is Joan Crawford who tapes all her shows and without any audience. . . . Add nervous stars: Jack Benny, who always sounds as cool as a popsicle. . . . Radio disc jockey Bill Leyden is starting to get busy again, with several show ideas—both radio and TV—being offered the quick-witted ex-flyer. . . . Les Anderson, who has had a skyrocketing career in TV since his days on "Hometown Jamboree" is the latest victim of the terrific pace and pressure of the new entertainment medium. "Carrot Top" suffered a near breakdown last week, causing cancellation of several guest appearances.
